◆ Tuesday, January 26
College/Health Care Chaplaincies Placement Fair
Main Lounge noon to 2:00 p.m.
A recruitment fair will be held for students interested in college and health care chaplaincies. Those M.Div. and M.A. students who need a field education placement are encouraged to come, meet, and talk to local chaplains from college and health care facilities. These groups are seeking students for summer 1999 and/or the 1999-2000 academic year.
Contact: Violet Hertrich
Phone: 497-7970

◆ Wednesday, January 27
Wednesday, February 3
Field Education Local Church Fair
Mackay Auditorium noon to 3:00 p.m.
Those students who seek field education placements in local churches for summer 1999 or the 1999-2000 academic year are invited to this recruitment event. You will meet supervisors who represent churches located within an hour's drive of Princeton. At least thirty churches will be represented, and students are encouraged to interview as many sites as they wish.
Contact: Violet Hertrich
Phone: 497-7970

◆ Thursday, January 28
Field Education Specialized Ministry Fair
Main Lounge 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Students who seek field education internships for summer 1999 or the 1999-2000 academic year are encouraged to attend this recruitment event. Supervisors from approximately thirteen specialized ministries will be on hand to discuss their work. All ministries are within an hour's drive of Princeton.

◆ Graduate Fellowship for Parish Pulpit Ministry
The Seminary offers a Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Pulpit Ministry to a member of the M.Div. senior class who will graduate next May. The award enables a graduate committed to parish pulpit ministry to study overseas. Although the amount to be awarded is not yet known, in recent years it has ranged from $12,000 to $18,000. Information sheets and applications for the award can be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs. All applications must be returned by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, January 29, 1999.
Contact: Kathy Perelli
Phone: 497-7880

◆ Senior and Middler Prizes
The Seminary annually awards two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $1,000 each, one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in the English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 1998-99 is "The Body of Christ." The English Bible topic is "The Community of Faith."

In addition, the John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 1998-99 is "Foundations of Hope," and the sum of the award is $500.

◆ National Capital Semester
The National Capital Semester for Seminarians offers an opportunity for a limited number of students to spend their fifth term of residence in Washington, D.C., to study public policy from a theological perspective and to interact with people involved in the political process. The program entails supervised study, direct political involvement, and ethical reflection. Participants retain their enrollment in Princeton Seminary, receive a full semester of academic credit, and are eligible for financial assistance. The application deadline is February 1, 1999, for the fall 1999 semester. Please stop by the Office of Academic Affairs in the Administration Building, Room 126, for more information and an application form.

Class Stewards on Campus

On Friday, February 5, and Saturday, February 6, alumni/ae representatives from the graduating classes of the last fifty years will be on campus for a fund-raising workshop. These class stewards work with their classmates to generate gifts to the annual Alumni/ae Roll Call. All Roll Call gifts are designated for student scholarship aid. Alumni/ae helping students is a Princeton tradition. The workshop is designed to inform the stewards about the Seminary today and to involve them firsthand with the life of the campus. Many of these alumni/ae are returning to Princeton for the first time since graduation. They are committed to the Roll Call because they want to assist today's students. They would welcome the opportunity to get to know the students on an individual basis. Please extend a gracious welcome to them.

◆ Play Auditions

This spring the speech communication in ministry area of the Practical Theology Department will present Noah, taken from the Wakefield Mystery Cycle of Plays, (c. 1500 A. D.) and adapted in 1999 for the Seminary by Henry Robert Lanchester.

Auditions and interviews will be held February 1, 3, and 4 from 7:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Mackay Auditorium. All members of the Seminary community are welcome to try out. No experience is necessary. We seek to form an ensemble of players with combined acting, understudying, and backstage responsibilities. Three credits are available to students who enroll in the course SC340 "Drama As Practical Theology." Sign up for an audition or interview in the Speech Office, 103 Templeton.

◆ Class Stewards on Campus

On Friday, February 5, and Saturday, February 6, alumni/ae representatives from the graduating classes of the last fifty years will be on campus for a fund-raising workshop. These class stewards work with their classmates to generate gifts to the annual Alumni/ae Roll Call. All Roll Call gifts are designated for student scholarship aid. Alumni/ae helping students is a Princeton tradition. The workshop is designed to inform the stewards about the Seminary today and to involve them firsthand with the life of the campus. Many of these alumni/ae are returning to Princeton for the first time since graduation. They are committed to the Roll Call because they want to assist today's students. They would welcome the opportunity to get to know the students on an individual basis. Please extend a gracious welcome to them.

Lecture in Ethics

Princeton University
Robertson Hall, Bowl 1 4:30 p.m.
Frederick Schauer, Frank Stanton Professor of the First Amendment at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, will give a lecture on "Obedience to the Law, Obedience to the Courts, and the Obligations of Citizenship."

(con't)

The event is one of a series of James A. Moffett '29 Lectures in Ethics offered each year by the University Center for Human Values directed by Amy Gutmann, Laurance S. Rockefeller University Professor of Politics. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Professor Schauer teaches and writes about the philosophical grounding, legal contours, and practical implications of constitutionalism, often focusing on freedoms of speech and of the press.

Before his appointment at the Kennedy School of Government, where he currently serves as academic dean, he was professor of law at the University of Michigan.

A former chair of the Section on Constitutional Law of the Association of American Law Schools, and editor of the journal Legal Theory, Professor Schauer is the author of The Law of Obscenity; Free Speech; Playing by the Rules: A Philosophical Examination of Rule-Based Decision-Making in Law and in Life; The Philosophy of Law; and numerous articles on the freedom of speech, constitutional theory, and the philosophy of law.

A reception follows in the lower lobby of Robertson Hall. For more information, please call 258-4798.
